

HITLER IN VIENNA: THE RETURN

From Watercolors to Anschluss (1913 and 1938)

START: Meldmannstrasse 27 (Dresdner Strasse U6)
END: Neubaugürtel 34-36 (Burggasse Stadthalle U6)

© www.whitehousetravel.com
 Map Data © Google Maps

THE 'MILKMAID HOUSE'
 MELDMANNSTRASSE 27
 MELDLEINSTRASSE
 To view Hitler's original plans, he had apartment 6 in the building that Simon took down. It was Hitler's residence during his early years in Vienna.

MILKMAID HOUSE APARTMENT FOR MEN
 MELDMANNSTRASSE 27
REZELEINSTRASSE
 From 8 February 1918 - 24 May 1918, Hitler rented the Milkmaid House here. After moving on multiple times and then the Milkmaid House, Hitler would return to stay with his wife in the new building, ready to enter his political life. The table was once a watercolor that provided the exact light Hitler desired. Hitler was not satisfied which had light were in high demand to buyers.

RATHAUS
 Friedrich Schmitt Platz 1
REZELEINSTRASSE
 In April 1918, Hitler returned to Vienna and addressed a massive crowd of Viennese from a platform constructed in front of the Rathaus.

3 h 11 min
 15 km

CAFE CENTRAL
 Herrengasse 14
REZELEINSTRASSE
 1911 was a special year at Cafe Central, one of Vienna's favorite haunts to the city. On any given day, one could find Hitler sipping coffee and Louis Trenck engaged just behind in a game of chess. Other famous coffee houses included the Café Sperl and Café Griensteiner.

WIMMERER RESTAURANT AND HOTEL
 Herrengasse 14
REZELEINSTRASSE
 In 1918, Hitler attended several parties at the Wimmerer Hotel, a well-known restaurant and hotel who was the leader of the German National Party and an ally of Hitler's. Currently the location has changed and the restaurant which is located on the ground floor has been changed since 1971.

HEROES' SQUARE
 Heldenplatz
 Following the Anschluss in March 1938, Hitler delivered his welcoming speech to 100,000 plus Viennese who had assembled along the parade route onto the Heldenplatz. Hitler gave the speech from the balcony of the New Austrian Imperial Chancellery. Today the Government of Austria has banned speeches from this balcony.

HOTEL IMPERIAL
 Kärntner Ring 14
REZELEINSTRASSE
 In March 1938, Hitler visited the crowd from his apartment building located directly above the main hotel entrance. Hitler entered the Hotel, who was welcome to the German people, occupied the room near to Hitler's.

Burggasse-Stadthalle

Neubaugürtel 34
 Fleming's Conference Hotel Wien